2018 Lenten Study to focus on the Gospel of John

Calvary Church will be providing a church-wide study during the Lenten season starting on Wednesday, February 21. We will be using the book, John: The Gospel of Light and Life by Adam Hamilton as the basis of our study. We will have a component designed for children as well as youth. Different pastors and retired clergy from the congregation will lead each of the weekly sessions.

The Gospel of John is the most deeply spiritual of the four gospels. The writing is filled with rich images and profound truths, but John notes that his aim in writing the gospel is that readers will not only believe in Jesus Christ, but that they “may have life in his name.” Adults, youth, and children alike can experience a season of spiritual growth and life-changing renewal in this series written by pastor and author Adam Hamilton. We will follow the life, ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus and understand the context of some of the best-known verses in the New Testament.

There will be an optional meal offered at 6:00 PM. This is a great time for fellowship and sharing with others over food. A main dish will be provided by an area restaurant or catering service at a minimal cost. We will provide information about each of the options ahead of time. The meals will require a reservation. Gathering time at 6:50 PM to welcome and make room for those who are coming for the study. The program study will start promptly at 7 PM and wrap up by 8 PM each week.

More details will be coming soon.

The figures are in for 2017

Thanks to a great outpouring of gifts in December the church was able to end the year in good financial footing. Actual income for the year was $737,447.76. This compares well with our projected income of $735,000 for the year. The biggest help came in cutting our expenses. Our actual expenses were $738,638.86 compared to budgeted amount of $755,600. We started 2017 expecting to use $20,000 of our accumulated reserves in the Operating Fund. However, we were able to very closely match our actual expenses and our income. We ended the year with our bills paid and a current operating expense balance of $43,920 deposited at FCB.

Thank you for all of you that made the work and ministry of this church possible. In 2017, we saw the additional expense of moving back to a full time Associate Pastor and the adoption of a Vision Plan that will enable the church to meet the changing needs of this community in the coming year and beyond. We had to do some belt-tightening this fall and in drafting the 2018 budget. This is never easy, but we are clearly moving in the right direction towards sustainable and solid financial health. We have a plan in place to have the church books reviewed by an outside accounting firm this spring.

In December, the Church Council passed a budget of $769,789 for 2018. This represents essentially the same budget figure as 2017. The budget shifts some spending for mission and Church and Society projects to other funds (such as Communion Fund, and Mission sub-account of the Calvary Trust Fund). This budget also makes some cuts in part-time staff positions that might be restored if additional income can be found. This includes the Minister of Visitation and Deacon for Outreach and Mission.

This 2018 Operating Budget breaks down as follows:

Ministry of the Word (Ordained clergy)	30.5%
Lay Personnel	31.6%
Care of God's House	16.4%
Conference Benevolences (apportionments)	11.8%
Programs	5.2%
(Music, Education, Worship, Evangelism, Youth)
Administration and Technology	4.5%

Many thanks to Bill Bennett, (Chair of the Finance Committee), Bob Jacobs (Financial Secretary), and Ken Switzer (Bookkeeper). More financial details, including a copy of the 2018 budget, are available upon request at the church office.

Dear Church Family:

The words thank you seem so shallow and do not even begin to convey my heartfelt appreciation for the many prayers given on my behalf, the cards and phone calls I have received, and the attempts made by Pastors Larsen and Humbert to visit me during my hectic schedule consisting of doctor visits and physical therapy appointments.

The journey has been a long, painful one filled with disappointment and frustration, but because of the love expressed and received by you, my church family, I have been provided the strength and courage to move forward and give my “all” to getting better.

My physical therapist is very encouraging, and along with all of you, one of my best cheerleaders!

Again, thank all of you! I am so grateful to be part of such a loving church family.

May the new year be filled with many blessings and happiness for all of you!

Blessings,

Linda English

From the cradle to the cross: The Christian discipleship journey

In Christian liturgical sequence, the church moves from Advent to Christmastide through Epiphany and into Lent, a pathway from the cradle in a Bethlehem manger to the cross on Calvary on the outskirts of Jerusalem. In last month's article for this newsletter, I focused on the identity of Jesus as perceived by the general public and, by analogy as the body of Christ, that of our local church, asking: "who do people say we are?" of "how are we known in the community?"

Judging by the worship attendance on Christmas Eve and Easter Sunday, relative to other times during the year, the celebration of Jesus' birth and resurrection following death on a cross are clearly signs of special recognition by the general public. With all of the décor, glorious music, and other forms of pageantry attendant to Christian celebration of those two occasions, one can only ponder what the meaning of the Christian faith is to those who participate only or at least on occasion in those special worshipful gatherings. And, is it primarily by these two celebrations in addition to the prominent location of our beautiful, large gothic stone church building at the eastern end of Baker Park that we at Calvary United Methodist Church are known in the Frederick community?

I pose this question because, while significant as they are in our Christian faith, the celebration of Christmas and Easter are only part of the story of our faith journey with Christ. As the former radio commentator Paul Harvey might say: "And now for the rest of the story!" The rest of the story, as we know, is the journey we begin in Lent wherein we take up our cross to follow in His steps the ministry of Jesus through prayer, scriptural study, and worship but also through humbly and sacrificially giving of ourselves in seeking justice, mercy, and healing for others, especially those who are marginalized in society. The rest of the story, in other words, is the role of the church in society. So, as the Christian fellowship song goes, will we at Calvary also be known by our love?

During this Lenten season, please join me and others of our congregation in asking God's guidance for additional ways in which we might take up our cross and follow Jesus to make a difference in sharing God's grace and love through others in our local, national, and global community.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Thank you all for sending Rev. Beth Richards and myself to the Stephen Ministry Leader Training in Orlando. We had a great experience learning about the Stephen Ministry system, meeting people from all over the country, and being reminded of God's presence with all of us through the difficult periods in our lives. Not that that answers your inevitable question: so what is Stephen Ministry, exactly? You will be hearing a lot about Stephen Ministry in the next few weeks and months, but let me give you a definition here: Stephen Ministry is a program that helps churches train lay people to care for hurting people. Have you ever gone through the death of a parents and just wished you had someone to meet with you every week, to listen to you without judgement, pray for you, and remind you of God's love for you? Stephen Ministers are not counselors or people who know everything there is to know about faith. They are not trying to fix anyone's troubles. They are not one-upping your stories of grief with their own. Instead they simply provide love, care, and support to those who need it most. Perhaps you, a friend, or family member would benefit from this kind of help and support. If so, regardless of if you are a member of Calvary, a Stephen Minister may be just what is needed.

One of my passions is pastoral care. I have experienced how congregations full of people who feel loved and cared for are vibrant, ready to live into the people God has created them to be. Congregations of people who are supported draw others in. Stephen Ministers intentionally come alongside and support those in need of care. They receive 50 hours of training, are part of supervisory groups that offer them care, and keep all their interactions with care-receivers confidential. At the Leader's Training, I was impressed by the Stephen Ministers I met and excited to train and work with Stephen Ministers here at Calvary. Think and pray about whether or not you are interested in being a Stephen Minister.

To learn how a Stephen Minister can help you or someone you know, or to learn how you can become a Stephen Minister yourself, please contact me at revshannon@calvaryumc.org. And keep your heart open to God's call.

Rev. Shannon Sullivan

Dear Calvary Family,

You are the greatest! We were truly blessed by the outpouring of cards and were lifted by your thoughts and prayers. Through this difficult time God has been our refuge and strength. Thank you all for being a part of His blessing to us!

Are you willing to serve?

We will be sending a mission group to share the love of Christ in Appalachia this summer. We will be serving July 21-28 at Henderson Settlement, near the border between Kentucky and Tennessee.

Come learn more about an opportunity to serve on a Volunteer in Mission (VIM) team this summer. Attend an interest meeting either Sunday, Feb 11 at noon in the fellowship hall or Thursday, Feb 15th at 7 pm in the Parlor. Unable to attend? Contact Dave or Pat Herber for more information.

Work Camp serves two purposes at Henderson Settlement. First, and primarily, it serves as an opportunity to educate persons in mission and the needs that exist amongst the less fortunate in our society. Secondly, work camp often serves as the bridge between dreams and reality for families of the Laurel Fork Valley of southeastern Kentucky and northern Tennessee, while giving groups the opportunity to witness for Christ through home repair.

Volunteers come in all sizes, shapes, and ages. In addition to home repair projects, volunteers may work in program areas like outreach as well as on the farm, in the Thrift stores, with maintenance, special projects, and in administration. They do everything from watering plants in the greenhouse to cutting wood, from volunteering in the office, to helping maintain the library, to helping with the after-school program.

If you would like to learn more about our VIM mission opportunities, consider attending one of the information sessions or speak to one of the pastors.

Stewardship

“But for me, I watch in hope for the Lord, I wait for God my Savior, my God will hear me.” Micah 7:7

What a gem of a verse! What a wonderful expression that is full of hope and anticipation. It leaps from the page as God’s word reflecting his light. Micah describes the misery of Israel in its depth of apostasy in the entirety of Chapter 7, except for this last verse. The woes of Israel can be ours - today. Micah says the godly are no more, men lie in wait to do evil, corruption is all around us, do not trust your neighbor, and enemies are of our own household.

But this last verse, so short, holds the greatest hope; it expresses self-awareness and commitment of a humble man in his faith for his God and anticipation of and assurance in God’s grace and mercy to the oppressed and fearful. There is hope of answered pray and a saved life.

“But as for me” – Micah in the midst of national apostasy has made a commitment of heart and mind to be a servant disciple of God. He knew what was demanded of him to “watch” and “wait”, to be aware and alert to God’s presence and voice. We, as Micah, are to patiently wait upon God’s plans to evolve around us and know the signs of His kingdom work; “waiting” is keeping trust in him to keep his promises.

Micah hoped God will keep his face shining upon him in all his days as he experienced the woes of the nation. A child of God will wait with patience that can only be given as a blessing from God. We should not test God to answer at our will but wait upon the Lord to give the direction to follow, to do the work in body and spirit he lays before us. We must not forget our time is not God’s time.

Micah completes his thought with a statement of deep faith and conviction- “my God will hear me.” There is nothing less than complete confidence that God will hear prayer from a repentant heart. Your God will hear you!

Plans for a Volunteer in Mission Trip to the Houston Area this Spring

Plans are underway to send a group of volunteers to help with recovery and rebuilding efforts in Texas following Hurricane Harvey. Pastor Steve plans to lead a group of about 6-8 individuals to go to the Houston area on or about April 3-11.

Although other disasters have come along since Harvey struck the Texas coast at the end of August, it will take years for this region to recover. Homeowners are frustrated, volunteers and the people living there are tired and the disruption continues. The hope is that Calvary Church and some other partners in the area might help with cleanup, prayer support and other jobs that will bring encouragement and practical help to those in need. The cost per person is about $275, this includes airfare. Scholarships are available.

Individuals who might be interested in taking part in a VIM trip or offering prayer/financial support are asked to contact Pastor Steve at RevSteve@calvaryumc.org.

Calvary Weekday School

Greetings from the Weekday School! Despite school delays and a closing during the month of January we still managed to have the preschool and kindergarten visit Catoctin Nature Center, collect food items for the Love Bags to be distributed to Calvary congregation, and fortunately not lose any recess time because we still have time for exercise in our indoor area of the activities room: bikes roll out, scooters, balls, parachutes, hoops, and blocks to name a few extras.

On Tuesday/Wednesday, January 30/31, we invite Calvary Weekday families to attend a free parent workshop: "Attunement & Attachment – Raising Healthy Social/Emotional Children – Fostering Empathy, Kindness, and Resiliency in Children". We invite you, also, to attend either session – arrive at 9am until 10am in the Activities Room in the Education Building. This workshop is being facilitated by Occupational Therapist Kelly Beins. There will be a basket raffle for those attending. For planning, please call the school office at 301.662.6783 or email director@calvaryweekdayschool.com. Hope to see you there!

We are enjoying a very healthy enrollment for the 2018-2019 school year. We have a few openings in the preschool, and a limited number in kindergarten. Please call for more information or to set up a tour.

Wishing our wonderful Calvary family a month of blessings, love, and continued appreciation for your support.

Thank you, Mrs. Walmsley
