Monthly Newsletter of the Calvary-Centennial Memorial Cooperative Parish

Dear Friends,

Aaron sent me a list he found online of best places to see the changing leaves, and he excitedly pointed out that Harper's Ferry is number seven on the list, meaning we get to live right in the middle of it! We love autumn--- the air as it cools down, the way the sunlight makes everything seem golden, butternut squash soup, and the beauty of the leaves. But it is also back to school, and as soon as the back to school rush slows down we are right into a Halloween rush or even skip over Halloween entirely to go straight into the Holiday rush of Thanksgiving and Christmas. Sometimes it is a wonder that we have time to notice the leaves changing at all.

In the Gospel of Matthew 6:27-30, Jesus says:

And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith?

In the middle of this hectic season, I invite you to consider the lilies--- or, in our case, the changing leaves. Take a moment to stop and breathe and remember the one who created this beauty. Don't let the busyness of the season--- the worry, the stress, the schedule--- keep you from noticing God's glory just outside the window. And if you need help to stop and consider the lilies, join us for small groups, open prayer, or the Women's retreat, where we encourage one another on this journey of faith and deepen our trust in God!

Peace,

Pastor Shannon

Worship in October

October 1- World Communion Sunday

We complete the series From Membership to Discipleship with the last of the five parts that are in the baptismal vows: Witness. Rev Larsen to preach.

1 Kings 17:7-16 and Matthew 4:16-20

Sermon Series: The Church Is Still Reforming

This year marks the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, which started when Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the Castle Church door in Wittenberg, Germany, on Oct. 31, 1517. We use this occasion to consider some of the major themes lifted up in the Protestant Reformation that still have a strong bearing on how we live out our faith today.

Oct. 8 God is Sovereign (Rev Larsen)

Even though the world often seems adrift and we are cut off from one another, God is still in control. God's hand still shapes and directs creation.

New members received.

Ephesians 1:-1-14

Oct. 15 We Live by Faith (Rev Sullivan)

Wesley-Luther Connection: Strangely warmed Reading Luther's Preface to the Romans

Romans 1:16-17, Romans 3:21-31

Oct. 22 Let Scripture Speak! (Rev Larsen)

On the authority of scripture to shape how we live and believe. Sola scriptura (Latin: by Scripture alone) is a Christian theological doctrine which holds that the Bible is to be the sole infallible rule of faith and practice.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9, John 20:30-31, 2 Timothy 3:16-17 and 2 Peter 19-21

Oct. 29 It Takes Grace (Rev. Larsen)

God is our hope for salvation and abundant life. God's grace is the ground is the basis for our hope.

Children's Church-New Curriculum and now at BOTH services!

We're growing! Beginning in September, Calvary is proud to offer Children's Church at BOTH services! We are committed to ministering to families and know how important it is to have age-appropriate offerings for worship. We have a new Children's Church curriculum that is easy to use and fun for the kids. Our new curriculum features 10-minute DVD lesson, optional music videos, crafts, and object lessons, as well as take-home paper each week. The best part it's developed by the publishers of our very popular VBS program! See a sample video here: <https://vimeo.com/206103694> and sample music video here: <https://vimeo.com/206093354>.

If you would like to be a part of this very important ministry, please contact Christy Mossburg at DirectorCEFL@calvaryumc.org. We're looking for volunteers that would be willing to serve once monthly as a leader or assistant. We promise you'll have as much fun as the kids do!

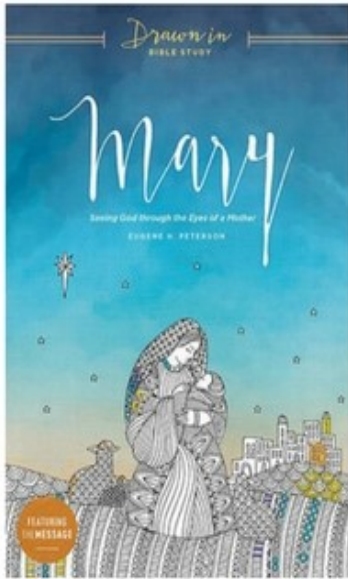

Children ages 5 and up are invited to join us for a "Paint Nite" inspired evening. We'll include a pizza dinner, snacks, all your painting supplies, a Bible story, and a canvas to take home. Suggested donation of $7 per child requested but not required. Middle and high school youth are invited to participate with different project options available for them. Contact Christy Mossburg for more information.

Get to know Mary, a modest young woman in a forgotten town under the shadow of empire, who mothered Jesus from childhood to crucifixion. .

Holy Habits class

Sundays October 1-22 at 5:30pm

Led by Pastor Shannon

A new four week study is intended to help new (and not so new) Christians learn and grow as disciples of Jesus Christ. This study is a brief exploration of some of the key practices that help us draw near to God, particularly prayer, discernment and service.

“Holy Habits” is one component of a larger curriculum called Growing in Christ developed by Rev Larsen during his doctoral work at Wesley Seminary. The other two components are “Bible Basics,” and “Essential Beliefs” which will be offered at other times throughout the year. Each component stands on its own, but the three parts lift up different ways to grow in Christian discipleship.

UMW-

Last month we hosted a 'Meet and Greet' for the ladies of Calvary to gather information about the importance of UMW and hear from the different circles that meet monthly. Besides being able to study and pray together. It was great to hear what happens during a circle gathering and the bond of friendships that are made.

I moved here from Wisconsin in 2014 and began attending Calvary UMC. I was invited by Helen Sheppard to attend her Circle. It's the connection of sisterhood that helps us feel cared for and included. This is intentional and purposeful. We shared at the executive level that this is a priority to have the women of Calvary feel included in UMW activities and gatherings. If you receive an invite to attend any UMW sponsored functions I pray that your first response is not, no. Please allow yourself to learn what we are all about and how we are vital in the church, community and globally.

It's crazy the world we live in. We are barely enjoying one season when another is being rushed upon us. I work in retail and we started getting in our Christmas Holiday merchandise in September. For many we roll our eyes with the entire process but for others, the delight in planning and seeing what is available is a joy. The same goes for the UMW. We need to plan ahead so that not only does it get on the Calendar at church to reserve rooms and prepare for the program but for our own lives as well.

Ladies, reserve December 9th from 2-4 for our second, Advent by Candlelight. More information will be shared on how you can either host a table or be a guest for the event. Information on the UMW Board in the hallway.

Youth News....

What a great kick-off we had in September! Our first youth group was on September 10, and 26 youth attended! We are going to have a great year!

Fall is upon us and there is so much to do! The youth are getting into what it means to be loved by God regardless of human fallibility. We are just returning from a retreat at Manidokan, and we had a meaningful and fun time.

Fall Fun:

Trunk or Treat- the Youth will have the funhouse again this year, we hope you will join us for this exciting experience.

OCTOBER 29- the youth will be visiting Crumland Farms to experience the corn maze, what fun!

We continue to pray for those affected by the hurricanes this year, and for those who have had circumstances beyond their control adversely affect them.

October Youth Schedule

October 8	youth	5:30	Parish Hall/ed building
October 15	youth	5:30	Parish Hall/ed building
October 22	youth	5:30	Parish Hall/ed building
October 27	decorate fun house	6:00	Education Building
October 28	Fun House	TBD	Education Building
October 29	youth	5:30	Crumland Farms

Did you know?

The youth gather on Sunday evenings for a time of fellowship with the Lord, and with each other. We gather together for a meal, much as Jesus did with His disciples. The meal is an important part of the fellowship experience, and it's quite wonderful to see them engaging each other. If you would like to assist in the meal preparation, we would love to have that happen. Sign ups are available at.

Please email me at katymoszburg@calvaryumc.org if you have questions.

Thank you for the continuing love showered upon the youth!

Stewardship

Last month Frederick City celebrated its annual Saturday event of “In the Street”. As in previous years, Calvary participated with a table display of information that tells Calvary’s story and our impact upon the community. A few of our members and our clergy were available through the day to talk to people who stopped at our station.

A few people showed interest and stopped to talk and learn more about Calvary’s ministry to the community. Those who stopped indicated that they had prior contact with Calvary and that it was through themselves or their children attending the Weekday School. Kudos to the Weekday School for such a strong and long standing ministry.

Except for those few, no one stopped because they felt the Spirit upon them. I felt the presence of God in their midst by our being there. I kept thinking about the tens of hundreds of people shuffling by us with only a glance and trying to not make eye contact. It was as if they were fearful we would “touch” them with the Gospel of Christ and the Holy Spirit would leap into them for their personal Pentecost. I am glad that we were there – for we were and are the presence of God.

The whole scene, people following one another with an air of lack of awareness, brought to mind readings from Isaiah, in particular Chapters 40 and 41. The Israelites of Judah were worshipping God on their own terms, not the way God wanted them to worship him. They followed the laws and commandments but without the spiritual feeling that God asks. They were mindlessly making their sacrifices but not from their heart and they were living a life that paid less attention to values and morals than attending the poor and needy. Isaiah was warning them of a great change coming to their world that would bring woe beyond understanding. If they would not change their ways of idolatry to the way of God, then they would live without God as their protector.

Calvary’s presence was the presence of God to the people of this day. We were in the image of Isaiah. Telling Calvary’s faith story and ministry provided a glimmer that may have been the spark to flame a recognition of God’s Holiness and his grace and mercy offered to them. Maybe, just maybe, they would later remember something about a God that reached out to them through us.

As Isaiah, we were the voice in the wilderness; calling “prepare the way for the Lord” (Isa 40:36). We were called to be God’s presence and witness that day and every day. You too were with us, by being part of the Body of Christ at Calvary.

Help keep our neighbors warm:

The outreach committee is once again collecting hats, gloves, etc. for our adult neighbors. We can also take tarps, warm blankets, and hoodies (please no trench coats or other dressier clothing). There is a blue box on the stage in parish hall for the items. All items will be donated to Second Street and Hope.

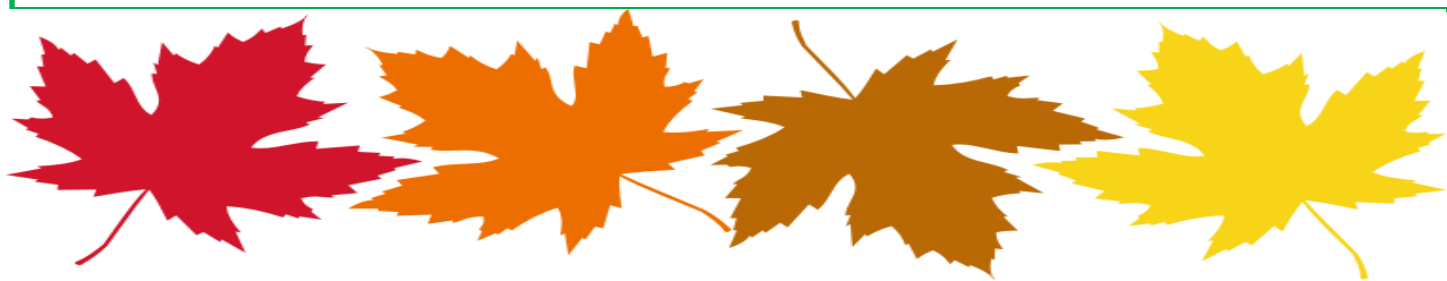

Calvary Weekday School

Greetings! Our Calvary Preschool and Kindergarten are in full swing now. Our Kindergarten has 100% enrollment and there are just a few openings in our 3's and 4's. This past June we received renewal of our Maryland Department of Education Accreditation good until 2020, as well as renewal of our participation in the MD. Excels Program at Level 5, highest level indicator for a quality school program. In addition to our approved State curriculum, we also offer Spanish, Library, Composer and Artist of the Month, and this year we are piloting a Music class with Ms. Angela Mayer as our Specialist. We are getting ready to offer Volunteer orientation and love to have extra hands in the classroom. This week we celebrated International Day of Peace with a whole school gathering. The children sang, "Light a Candle for Peace" and wore their Calvary Weekday School t-shirts. It was a beautiful experience! We try to gather as a community once a month in song and special themes: patriotism, love, honesty.....virtues we want to emulate, beginning with our youngest. We look forward to a wonderful year with our Calvary family and thank Pastor Larsen and the Church Staff for continued support. Wishing all many blessings this beautiful fall season,

Louise Walmsley, Director.

Charge Conference Scheduled October 18

The annual meeting where the church reviews its ministries and celebrates its connection with the larger United Methodist Church will take place on Tuesday, October 18 at 7:00 PM. The Frederick District Superintendent, The Rev Edgardo Rivera will be present to lead the meeting as the church makes several reports on the building, the ministries, the membership and the financial health of the congregation.

This year, the meeting is open for all to attend in addition to all of the voting is members of the Church Council. One particular item of importance this year is the decision for Calvary to bring to an end the Cooperative Parish relationship with Centennial Memorial United Methodist Church. This comes at Centennial Church's request and has been discussed at both churches. Agenda items also include: voting to approve the candidacy of Jeff Zalatoris for ordained ministry, renewal of certified lay servant status for Bert Edmonson, election of new persons in leadership roles, report of the pastors and deacon, approval of the compensation packages for each clergy under appointment and action on those members who have become inactive.

Hurricane Relief

As of September 18, the friends and member of Calvary Church have contributed $3,218. We will send this with a matching amount from the church Mission Fund to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). Thank you.

Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only!

Although it is one of the shortest letters of the New Testament, that written by James, who ministered to the early Judean Christian Church, is as much a blueprint as any of the letters for the church in today's society. For it calls us to action ... witnessing for Christ in a broken world! James reminds us that listening to God's word is necessary, but not sufficient if we do not put it into practice (James 1: 22). And, while he does not negate our justification before God by Faith, the Apostle Paul's dictum, James' letter to the early church reminds us more than any of the other letters that faith without works is shallow (James 2: 14-18).

How relevant this message is in today's society, in which, as reported by evangelist Bill Tenny-Brittain (BWC UMConnection Daily, June 5, 2009, p. 5), while 76 percent of Americans say they are Christians, only 14.8 percent attend church, the number one reason for such lack of engagement being that they perceive Christians as hypocrites, not practicing what they preach. Although we've heard that often in our lives, and tend at times to dismiss it as an excuse offered by those who are not active in the church, I believe we would be foolish indeed to dismiss such a perception completely out of hand.

United Methodists are called to renew the spirit of mission ... being sent into the world by and for God ... the essence of John Wesley's ministry, reaching those in need. Was such action not also the essence of Jesus' earthly ministry? Yes, the Scriptures remind us that Jesus regularly visited the Temple, where he praised God, taught, and prayed; but his commitment to God did not end there! His ministry was in the community (e.g., Mathew 5; Luke 4: 16-21), a ministry to which he commended his disciples (e.g., Mathew 10: 5-14; 25: 31-46; 28: 16-21.)

As we proclaim as a congregation in the benediction following our weekly worship service at Calvary, after preparing for the Word, hearing the Word, and responding to the Word, we go forth into the world to put the Word into action ... to serve others in the name of Christ Jesus. During this time of reflection on our stewardship of material and spiritual gifts given us by God, we are asked to think of additional ways in which we might grow as disciples and serve God in the community about us through the ministries of Calvary. Jesus reminds us, as he did the earliest disciples, that the opportunities for doing so are abundant (Mathew 9: 37-38).

Calvary's weekly electronic newsletter lists a number of the opportunities by which we might witness for Christ in everyday ways such that the unchurched and others in need of God's love will see the face of Christ in each of us!

Thank You

I want to thank my many friends at Calvary for their prayers, thoughts and many beautiful cards I received during my illness. It means so much to know how many friends you have when illness strikes. You have been a blessing to me.
