MESSENGER 2025

What will happen when the Pastor retires? Well, I won't love you one bit less. It has been my honor to serve as your pastor. My last Sunday worship with the Calvary congregation will be June 15. After that day, I will lay aside my professional responsibilities and role as your pastor. My plan is to shift from being "Pastor Steve" to simply "Steve."

Wanda and I will continue to live in the City of Frederick, but we will not attend Calvary UMC or participate in any of its ministries and programs. If asked to do a wedding or a funeral, a baptism or a sermon, I will politely say "no, thank you." For the first time in my married life, I will get to sit with her in the congregation rather than up front in the chancel. I look forward to that. We will be visiting various churches in the area. Right now, we don't have a plan as to which church might become our new home.

The Baltimore Washington Conference has the following policies regarding pastors who leave an appointment. The outgoing pastor is responsible for sharing the following with the congregation:

1. As of the effective date of a new appointment, a pastor shall immediately cease all pastoral counseling and pastoral visitation with members or member families in the previous appointment. Since appointments are generally announced several weeks in advance, each pastor has adequate time in which to effect closure and make appropriate referral to another for the pastoral care of members.
2. Pastors shall have a clear understanding with former congregations that they will not return to officiate at baptisms, weddings, and funerals, or do pastoral counseling or pastoral visitation in that parish. Pastors, active or retired, shall respectfully decline to participate in such duties when invited by members of a former congregation. Declining all such invitations is the responsibility of the previous pastor. The present pastor, at his or her discretion, may invite the previous pastor to return for pastoral functions. However, the present pastor should never be under any pressure to invite the previous pastor.

I will do all I can to support Rev. Dr. Beth as your new pastor. I have met with her already to make this transition go smoothly. There is a lot that she will be learning and new responsibilities that she will be taking on, just as it was the case with me when I arrived. I believe that she will be a very capable and caring pastor. Soon you will get to know and appreciate her and the particular gifts and talents she brings to pastoral ministry.

Should we see each other in the community, I would be happy to say hello and hear how you are. I will be glad to share the same with you. You and the church will continue to be in my prayers. I plan refrain from posting on social media for a time. Wanda and I plan to visit family and friends and travel to some places on our “bucket list”. Then we will see what God had in mind for us in this new chapter.

This is so much that I have come to appreciate and love about the people here and the ministries of this church. This church has a bright future. God will provide all that you will need to prosper and thrive. The work you do is valuable and a vital part of his community.

For all we have shared together, THANKS. For all the good that God has plans to do, YES.

Grace and peace,

Pastor Steve

MUSICAL NOTES

MUSICAL NOTES

Alice and Stephen Ricketts. Alice took piano lessons as a child and began playing handbells in middle school. She played in the handbell choirs at Grace UMC (in Baltimore), Bel Air UMC, Glen Mar UMC, and Damascus UMC. When Stephen was appointed to Providence-Fort Washington UMC (PFWUMC), she briefly served as the interim director and transcribed several hymn tunes for the choir to play when there was no music available to fit the group's size and experience level. Stephen's musical biography is much briefer. He had no experience playing an instrument until he agreed to join the handbell choir at PFWUMC because the choir needed one more ringer. But, once he began playing, he discovered he enjoyed the challenge and being part of the group. Unfortunately, Linganore UMC did not have a handbell choir, so both Alice and Stephen took a break from playing. When they retired in 2024, they made finding a church with a handbell choir a priority. Since joining the handbell choir at Calvary, they have both enjoyed the music and the camaraderie in the choir. They look forward to playing the bells at Calvary in the future.

Improvements at Calvary Chapel

In April, several improvements were made at the Calvary Chapel. The Rodgers organ and speaker system (not functioning) were removed to make room for an Allen organ coming in as a donation from Baltimore. The nonfunctioning piano was removed from the altar area. The Weaver pump organ was left, as the Frederick Historic Society expressed an interest in this instrument which is over 100 years old. To prepare for this new instrument, the worn section of carpet was removed and replaced by carpet tiles. To make the pew rows even the last pew was removed and placed against the back wall. Photos are attached. Thanks to all who made this project a success.

Baltimore-Washington UMC Annual Conference Report

Karen and Ray Gebhart represented Calvary United Methodist Church at the Baltimore Washington Conference (BWC) Annual Conference Session, May 13-15 held in Baltimore. They were in attendance along with the Rev. Dr. Stephen Larsen and representatives of the 600 plus other congregations that make up the BWC. The theme this year was based on the message from Paul in Philippians 4:4-9 to "Rejoice in the Lord: Dwell in Joy." As noted in the online Conference recap: "Claiming joy as a mindset, a discipline, and a way of life, the members of the 241st session of the BWC-UMC Conference met to worship, witness and celebrate the glory and possibilities of God." Bishop LaTrelle Easterling gave a rousing opening sermon on Joy and Pain and how "they can coexist, and sometimes, often times, they must." She said ""joy is not an escape from life; rather it is a declaration that we will not succumb, surrender, secede, nor submit. What we will do is rejoice, dance, sing and shout of the goodness of God."

The first day we were introduced to our new BWC structure effective July 1st, and met with our District Superintendent, Jim Miller as well as those churches in our regional collaborative Hub. The Downtown Frederick Hub is comprised of Calvary, Asbury, Brook Hil, Centennial Memorial, Jackson Chapel, Mt Pleasant, Trinity and Walkersville United Methodist Churches. Brook Hill will be the lead church for our Hub. Emphasis was on the need to build "authentic relationships, discerning community needs, and co-creating ministry that is contextual, courageous, and transformative." Reports told about significant growth in Young People's Ministry and the huge success of the IGNITE youth retreat.

Quite a bit of the focus for the conference was on the new Advocacy and Action ministry "Hate Divides, Love Unites" campaign. Several constitutional amendments were voted on including Regionalization of the UMC, adding "gender" and "ability" to the list of characteristics that don't bar people from membership, strengthening the stance for racial justice, and clarifying clergy delegate elections for General Conference. The outcome of the conference vote will not be known, as it will be aggregated into all the conferences for a total vote to be announced in November.

Additional items were adopted including a new African American Statement of Faith, administrative standards for clergy, advocating for peace with justice for the people of Sudan, opposing all forms of religious nationalism, and actively supporting and embracing LGBTQ+ people. Pastor Larsen was honored amongst those retiring from ministry. And Pastor Hutton was formally appointed as Calvary's incoming pastor.

In conclusion, the BWC-UMC Annual Conference was a resounding success, an inspiration for change to come, and a promise for the future that is based on "Rejoicing in the Lord and Dwelling in Joy."

Respectfully,

Karen and Ray Gebhart, lay members

Calvary UMC SHP Bed Build

For the fourth year, Calvary UMC will be sponsoring a bed build for Frederick Sleep in Heavenly Peace (SHP), our local non-profit that provides beds with all new bedding for any child ages 3-17 who needs a bed. The build will be held on Thursday, June 12 from 5:30 to 7:30 PM at the build barn in Adamstown. The barn is located at 2553 Buckeystown Pike, Adamstown, MD 21710. Look for the flags at the farm entrance.

This is a wonderful evening of service and fellowship as we work together to assemble parts for 20 beds and then stay to enjoy a time of fellowship and ICE CREAM! Consider bringing your grandchildren or inviting others to join you. We are inviting all ages this year and just ask that any children under 10 be accompanied by an adult (one adult for each child). We now have a much safer solid concrete floor (no more remnants of the uneven flooring of the old milk barn). We hope the June date will have warmer weather and less conflict with school/sport activities. Or consider just riding out to see the activities and enjoy some ice cream (served around 7 pm). Please bring your own chairs as we will be sitting near the barn.

To sign up for the event or if you have any questions, please contact Dave or Pat Herber (pkherber@gmail.com). If you are viewing this notice in an electronic version, you may also register on the SHP Golden Volunteer system using the link below. Also, if you would like to make a financial donation to support this build, please make your check payable to CUMC and designate SHP Bed Build on the memo line. Hope to see many of you on June 12!

A collection of tools including a wrench, a hammer, a tape measure, and pliers, along with several screws and bolts, are scattered on a light-colored wooden surface. The tools are arranged in a way that they appear to be part of a home repair project.

Greetings from Calvary Weekday School!

Kindergarten Graduation will take place June 4th and then the 2024-2025 school year will come to an end. Where did the time go?

Thanks to all who attended our last two fundraisers at Café Bueno and Rita's. This year we were able to raise over $4000.00 which was essential to helping us purchase new curriculum for the school.

We were very fortunate to have 62 volunteers at our school this year. Pretty amazing when we have only 82 students! We did want to recognize one special volunteer, Marion Keeler. "GG" assisted with arrival, substituting in all classes, art projects, community service projects, and anything that came up at our school. She dedicated over 600 volunteer hours. She is amazing.

This summer, our IT capabilities will be updated thanks to funds received from the MSDE Aging Grant. I'm sure we will complete some other smaller projects.

We wish Pastor Steve the best of luck in his retirement filled with many new adventures. We welcome Rev. Dr. Beth Hutton and look forward to working with her and the church community.

I hope you and your family enjoy some sun-filled days!

“This piano is one of the best on the planet. I love playing here. This room is filled with love.” - Brian Ganz, February 16, 2025, after performing his Extreme Chopin Concert on Calvary UMC’s Steinway D.

Dear Calvary members,

In 2008, our church invested in the Steinway Model D piano that resides in our Sanctuary. In the 17 years since, this gorgeous instrument— both visually and in sound – has been a constant part of our worship service. It has celebrated weddings, honored family and friends at funerals, and has been a cornerstone of the Community Concert Series, making it possible to host renowned musicians from all over. Brian Ganz, a concert pianist who has played our Steinway at least once a year since 2011, returns to Calvary regularly because he loves playing this instrument so much.

Pianos, just like other things with moving parts, must be maintained and eventually refurbished. Our piano’s soundboard – the most critical element it contains – has held up well and is in excellent condition. However, the other hundreds of moving parts behind the keys and the mechanisms that allow the hammers to strike the keys at the right velocity and weight, are becoming worn and must be replaced. A full regulation (adjustments for hammer swing, rate of key depression, and voicing) must be completed to bring the instrument to like-new condition. In addition, the case has scratches, dents, and dings and needs repair.

The estimated cost of this work, including professional movers to transport it to and from Piano Craft’s shop is $10,540. We are able to cover the majority of the cost with a $2,500 grant provided by the Delaplaine Foundation, a $1,000 gift from the Music & Arts Fund, and a $5,000 commitment from Calvary trustees. Your help is needed to cover the remaining $2,040.

The refurbishment is scheduled to begin in late June through the end of August. If you can help with a gift towards the remaining cost, please mark your check as “piano refurb” and place it in the offering plate or send to the church office. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Joyce

Nametag cemeteries do NOT grow churches

And what is a nametag cemetery, you might ask? I refer not to names on tombstones in memorial gardens or other cemeteries, but rather in this instance to the bulletin board just outside Calvary's Parish Hall near the food donation wheel barrel. Except for ushers and a few others, there are far more nametags on that board than are worn during worship in the Sanctuary. Why is that? Most likely it is due to the fact that those who have been members for a long while already know others who have been longtime members, thus setting an example for more recent members who are given name tags but see few if any others wearing theirs. The attitude of "they already know me and I know them" among regular worshipers can lead a congregation to an inward focus, that can become antithetical to church mission, making new disciples for Jesus Christ by reaching out and welcoming those in our community not already among our fellowship.

There is a reason scholars of church growth, Diana Butler Bass being among them, emphasize the construct of Christian hospitality as welcoming the stranger. For one thing, it is biblical (e.g., Rom 12:13; Heb 13:1-2). But think also of what hospitality connotes outside the context of church. It is invitational, welcoming, affirming, and engaging; and normally associated with bringing together family, friends, or neighbors, all of whose names, and often much more, are known. And when a few do not know one another, we introduce them by name to each other. Names are perhaps the most fundamental identity we have as humans; infants first learn to respond to their given names.

So important are names, that other scholars of church growth (Farr, Anderson, and Kotan. 2013), United Methodists from the Missouri Conference, have written a book titled Get Their Names: Grow your Church by Building New Relationships. When I meet a new person whose name I want to remember, I have to write it down with a comment that reminds me of them; and in time with practice I no longer need that reminder. When visitors attend our worship service or other church activities, it is very important to get their name; and it is hospitable for you to be wearing your nametag as an example so that they can see as well as hear you give your name to them! No more embarrassment for them having to say "I'm sorry; I know we have met, but I've forgotten your name!" They can read it!

We have a new pastor coming to Calvary in July. We know her name as (Rev. Dr.) Beth Hutton. She does not know most of our names, however; so let's each of us help her by faithfully wearing our nametags. And if you have lost yours, have Cathy Baker, our church office manager, get you another one! Let's take this first baby step towards truly becoming a church known for its Christian hospitality ... welcoming the stranger!
