Call to Worship

I knew joy, but when I heard the laugh of my child,

Suddenly, joy was overflowing.

I knew love, but when you held my hand,

Suddenly, love was overflowing.

I knew God, but when you showed me grace, when you forgave me,
when you loved me, when you raised me,

Suddenly, God was overflowing.

So, let us worship Holy God together as a reminder that God is with us and we are never alone.

This is community.

This is the body of Christ.

Let us worship the Lord.

Prayer for the Day

Holy God, before you could speak, you were speaking—leaping in wombs, kicking, stretching, jumping for joy.

You have always found a way to show up in our midst,
particularly on our fearful or lonely days.

So today, as we crack open our Bibles, fluttering through these old beloved pages,
we ask that you would move again.

Stir in us. Speak to us. Fill us with the Holy Spirit.

And if we are not able to hear your Word clearly,
then give us Elizabeths

who will point out your presence in delight and joy.

Before you could speak, you were speaking,
so here and now, Creator God, we are listening.

Amen

First Gospel Lesson                      Luke 1:46b-55

Time with the Children

Sermon            Those who dream...YOU ARE NOT ALONE

Rev. Steve Larsen

Our sermon series this Advent is the Sanctified Art series: Those Who Dream. "This theme is for the dreamers in all of us—those who dream of a deeper connection with God and those who dream of a better world. It is for those who dream of comfort and for those who have given up on their dreams. It is for those whose dreams have been crushed and for those who show us that dreams take time. Join us this Advent as we dream alongside prophets and angels, Mary and the Magi. Join us as we seek and sow God's dreams for our world."

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever.

Amen.

We have a lot of members and friends of Calvary that could use an extra dose of Christmas cheer this year. We want to set a challenge for each of you - how many heartfelt, meaningful Christmas cards can you send this year to people on our list? Our list includes members of the Grateful Hearts class, elderly members, and others who may be lonely and depressed during this holiday season.

Our collective goal - 2020 cards sent from Calvary members.

How to participate:

1. Email Christy Mossburg at Christy@calvaryumc.org for the link to the list of names and addresses.
2. If you have children, let them make the cards. Kid's cards are the most appreciated piece of mail that most adults ever receive, whether it's from their own family or not. There's nothing quite like seeing a hand-drawn picture and heartfelt words from our youngest members.
3. Store-bought cards are perfectly fine and encouraged - just be sure you put a personal note in it to the church member.
4. Make sure that in addition to your name you put in the card that you are a member of their Calvary Church family.
5. Before you mail the cards, take a picture of the cards/stack of cards you send out. Tag Calvary United Methodist Church and use #CalvaryChristmasCardChallenge.
6. If you want to, you can add something small into the envelopes, like a bookmark, candy cane, or magnet. Just remember that you may need to pay extra postage if your envelope is heavy.
7. Once you've completed the challenge, email Christy Mossburg and share how many cards that you sent for the Calvary Christmas Card Challenge so we can add it to our grand total.

If you want to share on social media here's a message you can use: I'm doing the Calvary Christmas Card Challenge - I will be sending xxx of cards to our members that most need a smile during the holidays. You can join me! #CalvaryChristmasCardChallenge

Go make someone smile today!
