Words of Assurance and Pardon

If we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. May the almighty and merciful Lord grant us remission of all our sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sermon Series: Glimpses of the Kin-dom

For several weeks we are exploring together what it means to live as the people of God in daily life. Our hope and our belief is that our lives represent the kin-dom of God shaped by love for God and neighbor. The word “kin-dom” is a way of capturing what Jesus speaks about that takes in more than just a political reality. God intends to create a new kinship and community that is shared by all people. We will consider this by looking at Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians as well as parts of the Sermon on the Mount in the Gospel of Matthew.

The Prayer of Confession used in the service today is by Michael J. O’Donnell, U.S.A., 20th Cent. The United Methodist Book of Worship, (1992) #481.
